Our Mission:

The HCIDA is a public benefit corporation with the mission to advance the general prosperity and economic welfare of the citizens of Hamilton County. The primary objective of the agency is to encourage and assist entrepreneurial activity, business expansion and job creation.

The Hamilton County IDA actively promotes, encourages, attracts and develops job growth, recreational opportunities and economically sound commerce and industry throughout the county. Toward that end, the agency manages a small business revolving loan fund, may issue both taxable and non-taxable bonds and is empowered to offer a broad range of tax incentives.

The Hamilton County IDA was created by special act of the NYS legislature pursuant to section 857 of the General Municipal Law of the State of New York. The special act establishing the agency was passed on July 21st, 1986 by chapter 461 of the laws of 1986.
