

Contracted Welfare Fraud Investigator Position

The Hamilton County Department of Social Services is looking to hire a Welfare Fraud Investigator to conduct field investigations, investigate welfare fraud, verify eligibility and obtain and prepare evidence and statements relevant to the prosecution of fraudulent acts to prove criminal fraud or to achieve recoupment of monies as prescribed by New York State Social Services laws and regulations. This is a contracted part-time position and not an employee of the County. This is a specialized position involving investigative procedures and a knowledge of social services and penal law, and New York State forms, regulations and procedures.

Minimum Qualifications:

Three (3) years of work experience or its part-time equivalent, in field investigative work for an organized investigative program. "Field Investigative Work" must have involved contact with persons in the field for the purpose of verifying or authenticating information and complaints and discovering additional sources of information to be investigated in order to establish or disprove allegations.

Any questions regarding the position can be directed to the Hamilton County Department of Social Services at (518) 648-6131.

APPLICATIONS ACCEPTED UNTIL POSITION FILLED