

2024 Measurement Report
Hamilton County Industrial Development Authority

Sustaining existing businesses is a priority for the IDA. Because of the rule where IDA's cannot lend our own funds, the Hamilton County Industrial Development Agency is looking into creative ways to help foster economic development in Hamilton County. We are currently working with other lenders throughout the North County to find loans and connect them with businesses who may qualify. We are also supporting housing efforts wherever we can.